ABSTRACT

Beginning in 1972 and now appearing approximately twice a year, this serial publication lists Chicano-related materials acquired by the Coleccion Tloque Nahuague within the Library of the University of California at Santa Barbara. This compilation of issues consists of a complete collection of the checklist for the 10-year period September 1972 through December 1982, a total of 29 distinct issues. The organization of the checklist has varied over the years, but listings have generally been classified under such headings as: Anthropology, Art, Bibliography, Education, Folk Medicine, Folklore, History, Language, Literature, Medicine, Mental Health, Music, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Science, Social Science, and Periodicals. ARMSTRONG, John Milton. A Mexican American community: a study of the cultural determinants of migration. A dissertation presented to the faculty of the graduate school of Yale University. Ann Arbor, Mich., University Microfilms, Inc., 1949. 516 p. (HB 1991 A7 1949 - Center for Chicano Studies.)

The purpose of this dissertation was to define the cultural determinants of migration between Mexico and the United States in terms of the relationship existing between the migrant and his society. The technique used was that of a community study.

CARRION, Jorge. Mito y magia del mexicano. México, D.F. Editorial Nuestro Tiempo, S.A., 1970. 123 p. (BL 2530 M4 C3 1970 - Center for Chicano Studies, Main).

Originally published in 1950, this is a new edition of a collection of eight essays on the psychology of el mexicano.

MYER, Michael C. Huerta: a political portrait. Lincoln, Nebraska, University of Nebraska Press, 1972. 272 p. (F 1234 H87 M34 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Center for Chicano Studies, Main)

This is a scholarly study of Victoriano Huerta and his regime based on archival research. The author has tried to re-create Huerta's public life, and has probed the motives for certain of his actions, but has not attempted to present a psychoanalytic biography. The book includes an extensive bibliographic essay.

SCHARER, Norman B. Final report on the Santa Barbara Junior High School Reading Research and Development Center project for the funding period 1967-1969. By Norman B. Scharer, Earl Glahn, and Dorothy Ross. Santa Barbara, California, Santa Barbara School District, 1969. 209 p. (LB 1632 H35 - Center for Chicano Studies)

This is a report of a project funded under Senate Bill 28 for a Reading Research and Development Center for the implementation of a pilot program to investigate methods of instruction aimed at increasing the reading skill of culturally deprived Junior High School students.

SELVIN, David F. Sky full of storm: a brief history of California labor. Berkeley, Center for Labor Research and Education. Institute of Industrial Relations. University of California, 1966. 86 p. (HD 8083 C2 S4 - Center for Chicano Studies, Main)

This short book presents an easy-to-read account of California's labor history. The author did not attempt to write an exhaustive history for the labor movement, but he has depicted some of the issues and problems faced by labor today.

NON-BOOK MATERIALS

The two Chicano studies reading rooms (The Colección Tloque Nahuaque and the Center for Chicano Studies Collection) also maintain files of non-book printed materials. These include pamphlets, reports, articles, and newsclippings. Indexes to these materials are housed in the Colección and at the Center for Chicano Studies. Assistance in the use of these files is available during public service hours.

POESIA:

Hope

Hope, What is hope?
Is it running away from reality?
Hiding the Truth? Reaching for straws which are not there?
What ????????
Everything............. False reality, Truth and Straws.
Falsehoods until make reality.
Until make Truths.............
Yes, without Hope man can
survive.

That's right baby,
it's a hard life,
the sooner you realize it the better off you will be.

Rebecca Heredia

Poetry through the centuries has been a favored literary form for the Mexican. Chicano youth today are continuing that tradition. The poem above was written by a Chicana student at U.C.S.B. The Colección Tloque Nahuaque maintains a special file of Chicano poetry. Books, newspapers, and journals containing Chicano poetry are also available at the Coleccion Tloque Nahuaque and Centro library units. The following is a list of some of these materials.

LIBROS NUEVOS

BRIGGS, Vernon M. Chicanos and rural poverty. Baltimore, Johns Hopkins University Press, 1973. 81 p. (E 184 M5 B74 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Main).

The author of this volume states that "a disproportionately high number of Chicanos are affected by developments in the rural economy." Chicanos and their relationship to the rural economy are the subjects of this volume, which is the outgrowth of a project conducted for the Center for the Study of Human Resources at the University of Texas.

CASTANEDA-SHULAR, Antonia. Literatura Chicana: Texto y contexto. Chicano literature; text and context. Englewood Cliffs, N.J., Prentice-Hall, 1972. 368 p. (PS 153 M4 C3 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Main).

This anthology of Chicano literature was composed with the Chicano reader in mind. It contains selections written in English and in Spanish. The texts range from the Mayan Book of Chilam Balam through selections from contemporary Chicano writers.

DESIGN and Planning Assistance Center. A study of New Mexico migrant agricultural workers. Prepared by John G. Borrego, Gerald Smith de Gutierrez and Marsha Verploegh. Albuquerque, N.M., 1971. 75 p. (HD 1527 N6 D47 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Main).

The intent of this report was to bring about an awareness of the kinds of problems faced by migrant agricultural workers in the state of New Mexico. The report contains a section which attempts to identify resources in the state which affect the migrant worker. It also analyses programs which affect migrant workers. Included is a section on the role of technology and the implications of mechanization on the migrants.

ESPINOSA, Aurelio Macedonio. The Spanish language in New Mexico and southern Colorado. Santa Fe, N.M., New Mexican printing company, 1911. 37 p. (PC 4826 E8 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Center for Chicano Studies, Main).

This pioneering article, published in 1911, traces the origins of the Spanish language as spoken in New Mexico and Colorado, and describes its distinguishing characteristics. The author also urged that bilingual education programs be established in the schools, and that the study of New Mexican folklore should be encouraged.

KERCHEVILLE, Francis Monroe. A preliminary glossary of New Mexican Spanish... together with some semantic and philological facts of the Spanish spoken in Chilili, New Mexico. Albuquerque, N.M., The University of New Mexico, 1934. 102 p. (University of New Mexico bulletin. Language series. v. 5, no. 3; whole no. 247) (PC 4829 N4 K4 - Coleccion Tloque Nahuaque, Main).

This issue of the University of New Mexico bulletin presented a preliminary glossary. It was published as a aid for the compilation of a dictionary of New Mexican Spanish. The bulletin also contains an article on the Spanish language spoken in Chilili, New Mexico.

LANDMAN, Ruth Hallo. Some aspects of the acculturation of Mexican immigrants and their descendants to American culture. New Haven, Yale University, 1953. 215 p. (E 184 M4 L33 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Main).

This dissertation is based on a field study of Mexican acculturation to American culture. The research was carried out in the town of Ontario, California during 1951-1952. It focused on contacts between Mexican women and children and the non-Mexican population of the town.

A CHECKLIST OF CURRENT MATERIALS
COMPILED BY CARLOS NAJERA OF THE
UCSB LIBRARY.

NO. 7-8; AUGUST-DECEMBER 1973

The Department of Special Collections, on the 8th floor of the Library, houses non-circulating specialized materials: rare books, first editions, manuscripts and University archives. Some of these materials are relevant to Chicano studies; for example, masters theses and doctoral dissertations completed by students at UCSB are listed and filed here. A selection of theses and dissertations of interest to Chicano studies students are listed below.

ASTER, Richard Fredrick Jr. The termination of the bracero program--its probable impact on welfare and education in Santa Barbara County, April 1965.

Department of Economics.

In this thesis the author discussed the probable impact of the termination of the bracero program on welfare and educational expenditures in Santa Barbara County.

GARNER, Van Hastings. Cultural contact and conflict in late 17th century New Mexico, June 1972.

Department of History.

Borderlands historians have not recognized the decade between the Pueblo Revolt of 1680 and the reconquest of 1691-1692 as one of major change. This dissertation concludes that there developed in New Mexico a delicately balanced system that kept New Mexico at peace until 1680. This system collapsed in 1680. As a result each sector of New Mexican society was forced to restructure its relations with the others.

GOERLITZ, Richard Charles. Financing Francisco Villa's Division del Norte, June 1968.

Department of History.

The author of this thesis states that the stigma of banditry has colored the image of Francisco "Pancho" Villa. This thesis attempts to define the source of money and the exact means by which Villa supplied his army. Through an examination of source materials the intricacies and the extensiveness of Villa's financial organization become apparent. The conclusion is that Villa's army was not financed entirely through illicit means.

MACHADO, Manuel A. Jr. An industry in crisis: Mexican-United States cooperation in the control of foot-and-mouth disease, May 1964.

Department of History.

The cooperative efforts of the United States and Mexico to control and eradicate foot-and-mouth disease are studied in this dissertation, which traces the development of Mexican-United States cooperation in control of the disease from 1913 through 1954.

OLPIN, Bonnie LeBlanc. Some linguistic differences between bilingual Mexican-American children and monolingual Anglo-American children on the second grade level, June 1966.

Department of Speech.

This study was conducted to determine what linguistic differences there are between bilingual Mexican American children and monolingual Anglo American children on the second grade level. A series of twelve tests was employed.

RAMIREZ-BOULETTE, Teresa. Determining needs and appropriate counseling approaches for Mexican-American women: comparison of therapeutic listening and behavioral rehearsal, June 1972.

Department of Education.

This study was designed to compare and test experimentally the therapeutic effectiveness of two counseling strategies, therapeutic listening and behavioral rehearsal, with low income Mexican-American women.

A CHECKLIST OF CURRENT MATERIALS
COMPILED BY CARLOS NAJERA OF THE
UCSB LIBRARY.

NO. 9-10 JANUARY-APRIL 1974

One of the most frequently asked questions at the Colección is: "Where can I find articles on bilingual-bicultural education?" We have found ERIC (Educational Resources Information Center) to be one of the most useful sources of information about materials relevant to education. Each month the ERIC system provides access to nearly 1000 selected educational reports, bibliographies, journal articles, books and monographs.

The two major indexes to ERIC material are Research in Education (RIE) and the Current Index to Journals in Education (CIJE). Both are shelved near the Reference Desk on the first floor. The Colección receives monthly printouts of abstracts listed in RIE and CIJE which are relevant to Chicano Studies. The printout is available at the Colección Tloque Nahuaque Office. Most items cited in RIE are available in microformat. Ask at the Reference Desk.

The following list is a selection of recent citations from the printouts.

Research in Education

ED 086030 The use of bilingual student tutors in teaching English as a second language. Harrison, Grant Von; Wilkinson, John C. LIBROS NUEVOS

FLORES MAGON, Ricardo. La revolución mexicana. Selección y nota preliminar de Adolfo Sánchez Revolledo. [1. ed.] Mexico, Editorial Grijalbo, 1970. 158 p. (F 1234 F6595 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Main)

The collection of articles is intended to serve as an introduction to the thought of Ricardo Flores Magon. The articles which deal with the early phases of the Mexican Revolution, originally appeared in Regeneración. Included in the collection is the Manifiesto del Partido Liberal.

BARTA, Armando, comp. Regeneración, 1900-1918 [i.e. mil novecientos-mil novecientos dieciocho], la corriente mas radical de la Revolución de 1910 a travez de su periodico de combate [por] Ricardo Florez Magon [et al.] Prologo, selección y notas de Armando Barta. [1. ed.] México, HADISE, 1973. 541 p. (F 1233.5 B27 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Center for Chicano Studies, Main) Regeneración, published from 1900 through 1918, has been described as the most radical periodical of the Mexican Revolution. It also had a major impact on the Chicano community. This compilation includes articles written by Ricardo Flores Magon, as well as his principal collaborators in the Partido Liberal Mexicano.

GOLDBAUM, David. Towns of Baja California; a 1918 report. Translated, with introd. and supplemental annotations, by William O. Hendricks. Including a map of the Northern District of Baja California. [Glendale, Calif.] La Siesta Press, 1971. 70 p. (F 1246 G5813 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Center for Chicano Studies, Main)

In 1918 the Mexican government authorized the preparation of a report on the ownership of lands in portions of the settled part of California. The report is presented in the main body of this publication. Included is an introduction which deals with the history and geography of the area.

HOFFMAN, Abraham. Unwanted Mexican Americans in the great depression; repatriation pressures, 1929-1939. Tucson, University of Arizona Press, [1974]. xv, 207 p. (F 870 M5 H65 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque, Center for Chicano Studies, Main)

SUBJECT HEADINGS

The key to finding library material on any topic is the proper use of subject headings. If you need information about people, places, ideas, or things, the subject catalog or a subject index will lead you to the sources.

Subject headings used for Chicano materials are sometimes confusing. For example, books about pachucos are listed under the subject heading Juvenile delinquents; braceros are listed under Agricultural laborers, Mexicans; and Chicanos are listed under Mexicans in the United States, Mexican Americans, or even Spanish Americans!

How to find help. When you have difficulty in finding a heading you can turn to several sources of aid.

1. Subject headings used in the U. C. S. B. Library, the Colección Tloque Nahuaque and the Centro libraries are taken from Subject Headings Used in the Dictionary Catalogs of the Library of Congress. This large red volume and its supplements are kept on a table near the Subject Catalog. The volume lists headings and explains how they are used.

2. The U. C. S. B. Library has published a pamphlet on the use of the subject catalog. The pamphlet gives clear and concise information which is useful for all subjects. The pamphlet is free and available at the Information Desk.

3. The staff of the Colección Tloque Nahuaque and librarians at the Reference Desk are prepared to help you find your material. Por favor pida asistencia!

GUIDES TO PERIODICAL LITERATURE

A great amount of information about Chicanos never appears in book form, but is found only in journal, magazine, or newspaper articles. These articles are valuable for providing the most current information about a subject. Chicano Studies is interdisciplinary, a wide range of periodicals must be used by the researcher.

Specialized publications called indexes, abstract journals or citation indexes provide access to periodical literature. These publications list articles by subject, and often by author. They also provide the name of the articles, the name of the periodical containing the article, the volume number of the periodical, the date, and the pages on which the article can be found. An abstract journal will include a brief summary of the article.

Below is a list of indexes and abstract that are useful for Chicano Studies.

AMERICA, History and Life. v. 1- July 1964- Santa Barbara, California, ABC-Clio Press. (Ref E 1 A44 - Main, Reference Area)

Abstracts of articles for the scholar of American history and the interdisciplinary study of life in America. In addition to a basic list of history journals it also covers scholarly journals in related areas of the social sciences and humanities. It has good coverage of a number of subjects of interest to Chicanos.

EDUCATION Index. 1st- 1929/30- New York, H. W. Wilson Company, 1930- (Ref AI 3 E3 - Main, Reference Area)

A cumulative author and subject index to a selected list of educational periodicals, books and pamphlets. Covers all topics relating to teaching, counseling, etc., for all age groups (pre-school-college). It is primarily a periodical index, but includes proceedings, yearbooks, bulletins, monographs, and United States government publications. An excellent source for materials in bilingual education, as well as other areas of education of interest to Chicanos.

COMITÉ de México y Aztlán News Monitoring Service. Nov. 1972- Oakland, California, Comite de Mexico y Aztlan. (Ref E 184 C64 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque)

News clipping service from May 1972 covering all aspects of Chicano life. Newspapers covered are: Arizona Republic, Denver Post, L. A. Times, El Paso Times, San Antonio Express, S. F. Chronicle, Santa Fe New Mexican.

CURRENT Index to Journals in Education. v. 1- Jan/Feb. 1969- New York, CCM Information Sciences. (Ref Z 5813 - Main, Reference Area)

A monthly abstract journal published by the U.S. Office of Education's Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC). Covers literature in the field of education appearing in over 700 publications. This companion to RIE is of major importance.

POVERTY & Human Resources Abstracts. v. 5- 1970 [Ann Arbor] Published by the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations, University of Michigan and Wayne State University. (Ref HC 110 P6 P6 - Main, Reference Area)

Includes books, magazines and pamphlets on poverty and human development in the U.S.

PSYCHOLOGICAL Abstracts. Cumulative subject index to Psychological abstracts. 1927/60- Washington, American Psychological Association. (Ref BF 1 P75 - Main, Reference Area)

Abstracts of scholarly and technical articles and books of the world's scientific literature in psychology and related disciplines. Very useful for many subjects. It is arranged by major psychological topics. Subject and author indexes for each volume are provided.

PUBLIC Affairs Information Service Bulletin. v. 1- Oct. 15, 1914- New York, H. W. Wilson Company. (Ref Z 7163 P8 - Main, Reference Area)

An index to magazines, books, pamphlets, and documents in the fields of sociology, political science and economics. This is an excellent source of information for such subjects as the economics of the Chicano community, agricultural laborers, and statistical matters.

READERS' Guide to Periodical Literature. An author and subject index. v. 1- 1900-04- New York, H. W. Wilson Company, 1901- (Ref AI 3 R4 - Main, Reference Area)

An index to popular magazines such as Time, Newsweek, Psychology Today. Especially useful for the broad range of subjects it covers.

RESEARCH in Education. Nov. 1966- Washington, U.S. Govt. Printing Office. (Ref L 111 R4 - Main, Reference Area)

A monthly abstract journal announcing recently completed research and research related reports in the field of education. All the documents listed except as noted are available on microfiche in the microform section of the library.

SOCIOLOGICAL Abstracts. v. 1- Apr. 1954- San Diego, Calif., Sociological Abstracts Inc. (Ref HM 1 S67 - Main, Reference Area)

Includes informative and signed abstracts of books and periodical articles from a wide range of journals. A major source in the field.

SOCIAL Sciences and Humanities Index. v. 1-27; 1907-15- Mar. 1974- New York, H. W. Wilson Company. (Ref AI 3 I5 - Main, Reference Area)

An index to scholarly articles in the social sciences and humanities. Formerly called International Index, it is now divided into the Social Sciences Index and the Humanities Index. Has good coverage of Chicanos and Mexican subjects.

BIBLIOGRAPHIES

Bibliographies are the basic guides to a subject. They provide an organized listing of writings, books, pamphlets, articles, government publications, etc., usually on a single subject. They may vary in length. They can be found at the end of a periodical article, or they may be a part of a book, or they may be published as separate volumes. They are useful for answering such questions as: Who wrote it? When? Who published it? What else has a particular author published? What else has been written about this subject? They can help identify and verify information, and they can tell what material is available.

Chicano bibliographies have varied in usefulness. They have often offered lists of materials of doubtful utility for the serious student. For detailed discussions of the status of the art of Chicano bibliography writing the reader should refer to: "Toward a Chicano/Raza bibliography: Drama, Prose, Poetry" El Grito 7:1 - 85, December 1973. (HM 1 G6575 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque; and to the Bibliografía de Aztlan, an annotated Chicano Bibliography, edited by Ernie Barrios, and published by the Centro de Estudios Chicanos Publications, San Diego State College, 1971 (Z1361 M4 B5 - Colección Tloque Nahuaque).

SPECIAL ISSUE ON
CHICANO STUDIES: Serials Holdings at UCSB

October, 1977

This serials listing of Chicano Studies materials at the UCSB Library Colección Tloque Nahuaque is an important one. It is important for two basic reasons. The first is that it incorporates holdings of titles that have not been cataloged and are thus not listed in the University Library Serials List and thus have had no access tool beyond an alphabetical file of the actual documents. The second reason is that this list will provide the user with an up-to-date listing of our exact holdings based on recent serial renewals, cancellations, and holdings inventory, and incorporates titles and holdings once housed at the Center for Chicano Studies Library that were recently transferred to the Coleccion to better enable the maintenance and central location of like materials.

Materials in this listing listed as "Uncat" are for the most part titles of serials that have ceased publication, were serials that were "in print" for a short period of time an thus few volumes and/or numbers were ever available on a library subscription basis, etc. Nonetheless, the materials are important and this listing is but a step towards making them more accessible.

Materials listed that include a Library of Congress call number (for example: E 184 M4 A88) are serials that are included in the main library's Serials List and are thus accessible through the alphabetical listing by title, key word, and LC call number. They are included herein to establish a single alphabetical listing of all Colección holdings related to and documenting the Chicano experience. All materials listed are located in the UCSB Library Chicano Studies Library Unit,...., perhaps better known to many by its reading room name and locational signs as the Colección Tloque Nahuaque, or simply, the Colección.

The listing format provides the following information:
(1) publication title; (2) place of publication; (3) publisher; (4) frequency of publication - *see abbreviation key; (5) language of publication - bilingual, Spanish/English, English, or Spanish; (6) notes . . . such as "title varies" "ceased publication with. . ."; (7) holdings; and (8) LC call number or symbol "Uncat" for non cataloged titles.

*A - annual; Bi M - BiMonthly (twice a month); Bi W - Fortnightly (every two weeks); D - daily; Irreg. - irregular; M - monthly; Q - quarterly; Semi A - semi annual; Semi W - semi weekly; W - weekly; 3x yr. - 3 numbers a year.
